

TRAWLER LIGHTS

— PRIVATE COASTAL EXPERIENCES —

Echoes Along The Dart

Beginning beside the wide waters of the River Dart, this peaceful coastal walk follows quiet estuary paths, hidden waterside corners, and old ferry crossings once travelled by sailors and fishermen moving between Dartmouth and the open sea. As evening light softens across the river, distant boats, wooded shores, and echoes of Dartmouth's maritime past drift quietly through the air.

Enjoy Exploring,
Trawler Lights

Open Walk Map

Route Highlights

Car Park TQ6 0AL

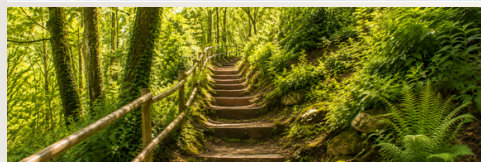

The River Dart

Calm riverside scenery with boats, reflections, and ever-changing coastal views.

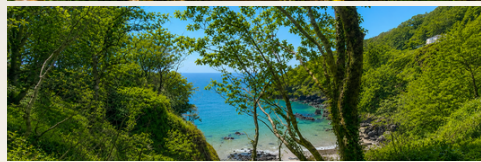

Historic Ferry Crossing

A traditional crossing point that has connected the river communities for generations.

Woodland Coastal Paths

Peaceful shaded trails weaving between coastline, countryside, and riverbank.

Hidden Waterside Views

Secret coves, moored boats, and secluded corners tucked along the estuary.

Dartmouth Harbour Return

Finish beside the waterfront with cafés, harbour views, and relaxed riverside atmosphere.

Trawler Lights Tip: Visit the castle at the top of the hill

Difficulty: Moderate

Approx. 3.5 miles

